NEXUS reserves the right to modify their prices at any time, subject to informing the Customer by email and/or to making an online announcement on the NEXUS Site one month in advance, if the new prices excluding tax are less favourable to the Customer. In this event, the Customer will have one month from receipt of this information to cancel their contract without penalty. Failing any such action by the Customer, the Customer will be deemed to have accepted the new tariffs. Price changes will apply to all Agreements, and especially ongoing Agreements.

NEXUS reserves the right to pass on any new tax or any increase in existing taxes without delay.

The Services provided by NEXUS are payable at the time of ordering. The Customer is solely responsible for payment of all sums due under the Agreement for NEXUS Services. By express agreement and unless deferment is requested in good time and specifically granted by NEXUS in writing, the total or partial non-payment of any sum due under the Agreement by the due date will automatically result in the following, without prior notification:

- immediate payment of any outstanding amounts owed by the Customer under the Agreement, regardless of the planned method of payment;
- suspension of all ongoing services, regardless of their nature, without prejudice to the ability of NEXUS to terminate the contract;
- removal of the possibility to subscribe to new services or to renew them;

SECTION 7: TERMINATION, LIMITATION AND SUSPENSION OF SERVICE

The Customer agrees in advance that NEXUS may restrict, limit or suspend the Service offered if NEXUS receives a notice in that regard from a competent administrative, arbitral or judicial authority, in compliance with the laws and regulations in force.

Either Party may terminate the Agreement, as of right and without indemnity, in the case of a Force Majeure event lasting more than thirty (30) days.

NEXUS reserves the right to interrupt the Service, as needed, for technical interventions designed to improve its operations, or for maintenance procedures.
